

July 5, 1939.

Mr. J. A. Robert Quinn,
National League Field,
Commonwealth Ave.,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Quinn:

I know this letter comes as a big surprise to you, but I have been planning to write you for sometime. It has been a long time since we last met, but I have often thought of advice you gave me, your words have more than come true.

Our League has still a long ways to go, but we have made progress, and at this stage I do feel encouraged to go on. The Eagles are at present leading the League, and most of the Members of the Team are quite young, which means they have a few years in front.

Now I am writing to ask a favor of you. One of our greatest handicaps is the fact that we do not all have Parks to play in, one of the teams "The Cuban Stars" want to play their Home games next year at Ebbetts Field. I am writing to ask if you will give me a letter of introduction to Mr. Mac Phail, and will write him for me. I thought he might feel more inclined to do business with us if he heard something about us from some one like you.

There is a Team playing there at present, but they are drawing very poorly, and I understand do not plan to continue.

I will greatly appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ